If the customer does not notify the Kampaoh tent manager during the specified check-in hours, their reservation will be canceled the day following their check-in at 11:00, following the "cancellation" procedure.

3.6 Payment Conditions

A 40% payment of the total amount will be made when making the reservation. This payment will be made by card, either through the website or by phone. The customer authorizes this charge by accepting the current conditions. The remaining amount will be charged to the customer within 48 hours before their check-in using the same payment method used for the reservation. The customer authorizes this charge by accepting the current conditions. If the payment cannot be processed using the payment method registered by the customer, they must provide an alternative payment method before check-in. The customer will not be allowed to check-in without prior payment of the total amounts established in their reservation. In case of a customer no-show, Kampaoh Agency will retain 100% of the reservation amount as a penalty.

3.7 Parking

All reservations include only one parking space. This space will not be beside the tent and will be assigned depending on availability.

Each parking space may be used by one car or two motorbikes. Should you need an additional parking space, it has to be requested on arrival to the campsite. It will have an extra cost and its availability cannot be confirmed until check-in.

4 General Conditions

By booking your reservation, you are accepting, in addition to the specific conditions of your reservation, the following General Conditions. In case of discrepancies between the specific conditions of your reservation and these general conditions, the specific conditions of your reservation will prevail.

4.1 Cancellation Policy

At any time before the start of the combined trip, the traveler may terminate the contract with the consequences described below.

If the customer decides to cancel their trip, the cancellation policy contracted in their reservation will apply.

When there is less time left according to the cancellation policy for the scheduled trip, the customer may cancel it, but Kampaoh Agency will retain 100% of the amount paid by the customer as a penalty for the cancellation.

However, notwithstanding the above paragraph, when there are unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances at the destination or in the vicinity that significantly affect the execution of the trip or the transport of passengers to the destination, the traveler has the right to terminate the contract before its commencement without paying any penalty. In this case, the traveler is entitled to a full refund of any payments made, but not to additional compensation.

The organizer may cancel the contract and refund the traveler the full amount they have paid, but will not be liable for any additional compensation if it is unable to execute the contract due to unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances and notifies the traveler without undue delay before the start of the trip.

In the case of contracts concluded online, by phone, or through other electronic means, the traveler has a period of fourteen days to exercise their right of withdrawal from the combined travel contract, without the need for justification, provided it is within the time frames established in the contracted cancellation policy.

For bookings of longer stays exceeding 20 nights, these will be considered non-refundable regardless of the remaining days until check-in and may be subject to supplements and special conditions.

4.2 Reservation Modification Policy

According to the general terms of this contract, outside of the contracted cancellation policy, it will only be possible to extend the reservation (never reduce it), provided there is availability. Otherwise, during this period, the customer may choose to cancel without a penalty.

The cancellation and modification policy contracted will be applied in cases where possible, with the Kampaoh tent manager reserving the right to approve or disapprove the modification based on availability. Withdrawal during this period will have the consequences indicated in the previous clause.

The traveler may transfer the combined travel contract to a person who meets all the applicable conditions of the contract by notifying Kampaoh Agency in writing with reasonable notice of at least seven natural days before the start of the combined trip.

The transferor and the transferee will be jointly responsible to the Agency for the outstanding amount of the travel price as well as any commission or surcharge and additional costs of the transfer. Kampaoh Agency will inform the transferor of the actual costs of the transfer. Such costs must be reasonable and, in any case, not exceed the actual costs incurred by the organizer and the retailer due to the transfer. Kampaoh Agency will provide the transferor with evidence of the commissions, surcharges, or other additional costs arising from the transfer requested by the customer.

4.3 Specific Policy for Groups

Reservations of more than 1 tent, made by the same holder or different holders but belonging to the same group, must be communicated by the Customer to Kampaoh Agency as "group reservations" and are subject to approval by Kampaoh. The lack of information on the part of the customer to Kampaoh at the time of making the reservation, indicating that it is a group reservation, regardless of whether they have been made by one or several holders, will allow Kampaoh Agency, once this circumstance is known, to proceed with their cancellation, refunding the deposit paid without compensation for the Customer, taking into account the customer's non-compliance in not communicating that the reservation or reservations corresponded to a group and therefore not having obtained prior authorization from Kampaoh.

4.4 Children

- Children aged 0 to 3 years are completely free (maximum one baby per bed).
- Children aged 4 to 13 years should be marked as "Children" and take advantage of the existing discounts.

4.5 Reservations by Minors

Minors under 18 years of age must always be accompanied by their parents or legal guardians. Otherwise, access to the campsite will not be allowed, and the total amount of the reservation will be forfeited.

4.6 Pets

We do not accept pets. If there are any specific options for pets at a particular destination, this option will be explicitly shown during the booking process.

4.7 Bed Linen

Please note that each bed is for 2 people in most cases.

If you have selected the rate that specifies that bed linen and towels are not included, you will not find your tent equipped with this service. Please note that you may purchase a set of linen and towels at the front desk during your stay or bring your own set. If you have selected the rate that includes these services in the price, your tent will be equipped with bed linen and towels upon arrival.

This bed linen and towels will not be changed for stays of less than 4 nights.

The change of extra bed linen will have an additional cost of €6 per bed per day (includes a sheet, duvet cover, and pillowcase).

The change of extra bath towels will have an additional cost of €2.50 per towel per change.

If you want a change of bed linen, extra cleaning, or replacement of clean towels for stays of 4 nights or more (free of charge), you must proactively inform the Kampaoh tent manager at least 24 hours in advance, as it will not be done routinely, only upon the guest's request.

4.8 Campsite Rules and Coexistence

Kampaoh tents are primarily intended for families, couples, and individuals who want to rest and enjoy a few quiet vacation days. Customers must respect the general rules of coexistence and the specific rules of the campsite, allowing the proper rest and enjoyment of the facilities by other campsite users. Without prejudice to the above, the following are some prohibited behaviors during your stay, which are listed in an illustrative, non-limiting manner: parties are strictly prohibited (especially bachelor/bachelorette parties), making disruptive noises, causing disturbances and, in general, engaging in any act that disturbs or inconveniences other campsite guests. The use of sound and/or television equipment or similar devices that may cause disturbances to other customers, especially in the camping area, is not allowed. Complete silence must be maintained in the camping area and its surroundings during the hours established by the campsite's internal regulations.

Groups of friends whose goal is to "party" at the campsite are prohibited, and the right of admission is reserved for any group, whether booked jointly or separately. Entry to the campsite may be denied, and the entire reservation amount will be forfeited as a penalty. For the groups that are admitted, retentions or charges may be applied to the card or cards used for the purchase to cover any penalties for non-compliance, to which they expressly consent in this act, in accordance with the terms of the "Non-Compliance with Campsite Rules" section. These amounts are independent of the deposit specified in the "Deposit" section.

4.9 Coexistence with the Natural Environment

Many of our campsites are in natural environments, which makes it necessary to respect the natural environment where the accommodation takes place, as well as its flora and fauna. It is quite common for elements of its fauna, such as ants or other insects, to enter the tent, as it is not hermetically sealed. In these cases, the customer should inform the Kampaoh tent manager to perform a cleaning and prepare the tent for the customer's stay. As part of the natural environment where the activity takes place, no claims will be accepted for finding insects in the tent, as indicated here, the Kampaoh tent manager will clean the tent in extreme cases (infestations), without being able to guarantee that isolated insects or other small animals do not exist inside the tent.

We also remind you of the possible limitations imposed by fire regulations. In certain campsites and at certain times, the use of fires is prohibited, including charcoal barbecues, hookahs, tobacco, etc. In these cases, the campsite and the Kampaoh tent manager will simply enforce the applicable laws, obliging compliance with them. In case of non-compliance, the customer may be expelled from the campsite, with the consequent loss of the reservation amount. Regardless of the penalty for non-compliance with the agreed obligations, the Customer will be responsible for damages, penalties, or other damages caused by their actions or negligent behavior. Charges may be applied to cover the result of damages and losses (in addition to those already indicated in the "Deposit" section). In case of damages, additional charges may also be applied (in addition to those already indicated in the "Deposit" section).

4.10 The Pitch and the Tent

The customer is responsible for the security of their belongings. Kampaoh is not responsible for any possible theft, loss, damage, or loss of personal items during the reservation dates. It is recommended not to leave valuables unattended in the campsite facilities, especially in public places or other common areas of the campsite. It is also recommended to properly lock the tent when leaving.

4.11 The Pitch and the Tent

In the reserved pitch, you will find the Kampaoh tent you have booked or, in exceptional cases, a higher-grade model than the one reserved.

The following rules, which are listed in an illustrative, non-limiting manner, must be strictly followed:

- Smoking or generating unpleasant odors inside the tent is not allowed. If this occurs, it may be considered damage to the tent, and the measures indicated in the "Deposit" section may be applied.
- The tent is delivered to the customer in a clean condition, and the customer must return it in the best possible condition. If the tent is returned with excessive dirt (food, papers, seeds, mud, etc.), it will be considered damage to the tent, and the measures indicated in the "Deposit" section may be applied.
- Taking furniture or mattresses outside of the tent is not allowed. In case of non-compliance, it may be considered damage to the items involved, and the measures indicated in the "Deposit" section may be applied.
- Installing other types of tents, shades, umbrellas, canopies, or any similar items on the pitch is not allowed.

Failure to comply with these rules may result in expulsion from the campsite, with the loss of the entire reservation amount as a penalty.

4.12 Deposit

Clarification: The regulations in this section are intended to take decisive action in the event of uncivilized behavior, something that unfortunately occurs sometimes when customers do not respect the furniture and services offered.

The customer expressly authorizes the Kampaoh tent manager to make a retention or charge on the card used for the purchase, as a deposit or security, in an amount of up to €200 per person, to cover any damage, defects, disorders, or disturbances caused by the Kampaoh tent guest.

This charge will ONLY be made definitively in the event that one of the described situations occurs. This means that if no damage or defects occur, or if no violations occur that result in a penalty in accordance with the provisions of these terms or the specific conditions of the reservation, not a single euro will be taken from your card. Security deposits are not automatically charged definitively, as the Kampaoh tent manager will first contact the guest to detail the damage or penalties that apply and request reimbursement of the corresponding amount for repair or replacement of the damaged item or, if applicable, payment of the penalty. If not, the charge of the pre-authorized deposit will be made definitively. The Kampaoh tent manager may definitively charge a portion or the entire deposit to the card within 15 days after the departure date (including the departure date). If the value of the damage and/or applicable penalties exceeds the amount of the deposit, the customer will be obligated to pay the remaining amount to cover the total cost of the damage and applicable penalties. By accepting these terms, the customer agrees that these charges will be made on the same card or another card used for previous payments, and that the Kampaoh tent manager will make this charge from the moment the damage or violations and applicable penalties are reported in accordance with these terms.

The reference costs for damage to the main items used by the customer are as follows:

- Tent: from €20 to €10,000 depending on the type of tent and the damage caused.
- Tent cleaning: from €30 to €200 depending on the type of tent and the level of dirt.
- Mattress: up to €300
- Bed linen: up to €45
- Bath towels and bathrobes: up to €45
- Bed structure: up to €250
- Table: up to €100

- Chest: up to €150
- Hammock: up to €150
- Coat rack: up to €155
- Electrical appliances: up to €400
- Lighting fixtures: up to €50
- Rug: up to €150
- Mirror: up to €35
- Decorative items: up to €25
- Beach cooler: up to €35

- Padlock: up to €4
- Other furniture items: from €20 to €10,000 depending on the type of tent and the damage caused.

These amounts include expenses related to the management and transportation of the replacement item.

4.13 Non-Compliance with Camping Rules

The customer provides their consent and authorizes that, in case of such non-compliance, the resulting amount of the mentioned penalty be charged to the same card or another card on which the customer has previously made payments.

The customer expressly consents that the manager of "Kampaoh" or any employee of the camping may record in video or photograph what has occurred. These data will only be used if required by the customer or by the competent authorities in accordance with current legislation and will be retained for the maximum periods legally established.

The manager of "Kampaoh" or any camping employee will request the customer or any person staying in accordance with the reservation made by the customer to cease the disruptive behavior, and irrespective of the application of the aforementioned penalty, in the event that the Customer or any person accommodated under the reservation made does not cease the disruptive behavior immediately, the "Kampaoh" tent manager or any camping employee will be authorized to expel such customers from the premises, which will also result in the loss of the total amount of the reservation.

Furthermore, the manager of "Kampaoh Agencia" may call the police in cases where it is considered appropriate, or in cases where customers refuse to leave the camping despite their non-compliance.

We take this measure as a last resort in the case of potential customers who disturb others in a carefree manner. Any damage or imperfection will be charged separately, as described in the "Deposit" section.
